Social Informatics
Field Exam Reading List
Fall 2009

Social Informatics Overviews

http://www.acls.org/uploadedFiles/Publications/Programs/Our_Cultural_Commonwealth.pdf

Major Theoretical Contributions to Social Informatics

Chapter 4: information ecologies

Social Networks & Social Capital

Knowledge Construction & Communities

Ch 1. Community Inquiry and Informatics: Collaborative Learning Through ICT (Ann Peterson Bishop, Bertram C. Bruce and M. Cameron Jones)

Ch2. The Participant-Observer in Community-Based Learning as Community Bard (John M. Carroll)

Ch 8. Social Reproduction and Its Applicability for Community Informatics (Lynette Kvasny)

Chapter 9: Situated Knowledges: The Science Question in Feminism and the Privilege of Partial Perspective

5 individualized selections focusing on social networks and learning:

